

A Self-Guided Walking Tour of The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga

Please Enjoy Your Visit...

Welcome

Welcome to The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga!

As you walk around the campus at The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, you will find a message chiseled for eternity into the stone of our structures. "We shall achieve." A bold commitment that guides us in everything we do, and tells the world what to expect from our campus. At UTC, we achieve, and so will you.

UTC FAST FACTS:

History

UTC was founded in 1886 as a private institution, Chattanooga University. In 1969, the University, a junior college, and Chattanooga City College joined the University of Tennessee statewide higher education system and formed the university now referred to as The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga.

Location

The 100+ acre central campus is situated only a few blocks from downtown Chattanooga, a vibrant city growing in industry and flourishing in natural beauty.

Enrollment

UTC currently enrolls about 10,175 undergraduate students and 1,411 graduate students who represent more than 70 Tennessee counties, 40 states, and 40 foreign countries.

Faculty

More than 90% of UTC's professors hold terminal degrees.

Class Size

25 students per class with a student/faculty ratio of 20:1

Additional Information

- Named as a College of Distinction and a Military Friendly School in both 2015 & 2016.
- In 2016, UTC opened a $48 million state of the art library designed for research, technology, and academic support.
- Among other distinguished programs at UTC, the College of Business has been consistently named by Business Week as one of the top 100 undergraduate programs in the nation.

Mascot

Named after legendary football coach A.C. "Scrappy" Moore, Scrappy, the Chattanooga mascot, is a fixture for the Mocs. A re-design in 2008 puts Scrappy in the image of the State Bird of Tennessee, a Mockingbird. The mockingbird is known as a fierce protector of its nest and environment. Once described by "Late Night" host Jimmy Fallon as "a sledge-hammer wielding mock-ingbird with a heart of Blue & Gold," Scrappy symbolizes that competitive passion.

1The University Center (UC)

Originally opened in 1974, the UC underwent a $15 million renovation in 2004. Approximately 80,000 square feet were added to the building, creating a total of 220,000 square feet. This building houses many student services offices and Scrappy's Place food court.

2Maclellan Gymnasium

Built in the 1960s the gym can house 4,000 people and is home to our Lady Mocs Volleyball Team. The building currently houses our Student Health Services.

3Aquatic and Recreation Center (ARC)

UTC's state of the art student wellness center. This $14 million building includes a rock climbing wall, bouldering wall, indoor track, multiple sports courts (basketball, volleyball, badminton, & soccer) cardio machines and exercise equipment.

The aquatic side includes a kayak plunge pool, lap pool, lazy river and 2 story water slide. Campus recreation offers everything from club sports, intramural sports, equipment rental, and low or no cost weekend activities.

4The McKenzie Arena

Built in 1982, the arena is also known as "The Roundhouse." The building seats 12,000 and is a joint venture between the city, state government, and UTC. Not only do UTC athletic events take place here (which are free to students) but major events and concerts play here throughout the year.

5Brenda Lawson Student Athlete Success Center : Chatterm Basketball Practice Facility & Wolford Family Strength and Conditioning

For the use of student athletes in their quest for comprehensive excellence: academically, athletically and socially. All 17 Mocs intercollegiate athletics programs are able to use the Brenda Lawson Student- Athlete Success Center. The 20,000 square foot building was built with $3.25 million of private donations.

6Alumni Affairs

Built in the 1870's by Caleb Isbesther (Founder of Chattanooga Foundry). Has been psychiatric office and investment firm in the past. UTC acquired the building in 2010. This home is listed on the National Register of Historic Homes and now houses our Alumni Affairs office.

7Mapp Building

The Mapp Building is named after James R. Mapp. Mr. Mapp spent 16 years as the President of the Chattanooga Chapter of the NAACP. The building opened in 2016 as the new home of both our Physical Therapy and Occupational Therapy departments.

8Frist Hall

This former medical facility was donated to UTC and named after the Frist family. This building houses the the Communication Dept.

9Metropolitan ("Metro") Hall

This building was formerly Metropolitan Hospital has been recently renovated and it now houses our Nursing Department, Mocs Television studio and Health & Human Performance.

10Development House

Constructed in 1920, the Development House is one of the oldest buildings on campus. This building was originally the residence of the chancellor. It currently houses our on-campus fundraising operation.

11Fletcher Hall

Fletcher once served as Chattanooga's Public Library and UTC's library. The building now houses the College of Business. Less than 10 percent of the world's business schools have achieved business and/or accounting accreditation from AACSB.

12Founders Hall

This building was part of the original school in 1886 and now houses the Office of the Chancellor. The University shield and Motto are on the outside of the building. "Faciemus" means "We shall achieve" in Latin.

Hooper/Race Halls

Typically referred to as “Hooper-Race.” If you face the buildings from Oak Street, Race Hall is on the right and Hooper Hall is on the left. Race Hall houses the Graduate office, Grants & Research and International Student Services. Hooper Hall houses the Provost's staff and International Student Services. Built in 1917, they are some of the oldest buildings on campus.

14

Patten Chapel

Dedicated in 1919 as a gift from Mrs. John A. Patten to honor her husband, Patten Chapel was formerly used for daily chapel when we were a private institution. Now the chapel is used for choral practice, and ceremonies such as honors inductions. Patten Chapel is also a popular wedding venue.

15

Hunter Hall

Named for George Thomas Hunter, the creator of the Benwood Foundation. This building houses Education, Interior Design, Social Work Departments, and Integrated Studies.

16

Danforth Chapel

This small, elegant chapel was added to Hooper-Race in 1957. It still hosts the occasional small wedding.

17

Bretske Hall

Bretske Hall is across the street from Hunter Hall. This building was the first University center at UTC. This building has been recently remodeled and now houses studio space for the Art department.

Guerry Center

The Guerry Center was built in the 1950's and was originally used as our Student Center. This building houses the the Economics department, the Honors College and an all-you-can-eat dining facility called “Campus Crossroads.”

19

Cadek Conservatory of Music

Cadek was founded in 1904 and became affiliated with UTC in 1935. This building houses offices & classrooms, and our WUTC 88.1 radio station. The conservatory offers private music lessons for both UTC students and people in the community.

20

Fine Arts Center (FAC)

The Fine Arts Center was constructed in the 1980s at the cost of 6.2 million. This building houses the departments of Art, Music, and Theatre. It also holds our Cress Art Gallery, Dorothy Hackett Ward Theater, and Roland Hayes Concert Hall.

21

The Patten House

The Patten House, on the corner of Palmetto and Oak Street, houses our Faculty Club and Alumni office.

22

Engineering, Math & Computer Science Building (EMCS)

This building is one of our newest and largest academic building on campus. It is a total of 200,000 square feet and was completed in fall of 2003 at the cost of $30 million. The math lab, on the second floor of the building, offers free tutoring and assistance with math courses.

Lupton Hall

Formerly titled Lupton library was built from support from John Lupton and family. The structure was built in the early 1970s and was used as UTC's Library until Spring 2015. Now that the new Library is completed this building is expected to be used for additional student service space as well as potential meeting rooms and classrooms.

24

Brock Hall

Brock Hall was built in the 1940s and named after former Chattanooga Civic leader and US Senator William Brock. This building houses the departments of History, Modern & Classical Languages, Sociology, & Anthropology and Geography.

Built in the 1970s and named for Dr. Irvine Grote, former faculty member and alum who became a distinguished American Pharmaceutical chemist. Dr. Grote invented the active ingredient in Roloids. This building houses the departments of Chemistry & Physics.

26

Holt Hall

Holt Hall houses the departments of English, Philosophy and Religion, Psychology, Biology, Geology and Environmental Science, and Women's Studies.

27

The Challenger Center

The Challenger Center is on the corner of 5th Street and Palmetto, across from the EMCS building. The center is an outside project funded by June Scobee Rogers, wife of shuttle commander Dick Scobee and a Chattanooga resident. The center was completed in 1995 and was a senior engineering project where students developed a space shuttle simulator.

28

The Administrative Services Building

The Administrative building lies at the intersection of 5th and Palmetto. This building houses our Campus Police department, IKON printing services & mail services.

29

Brown Academy

UTC serves as a partner to Brown Academy and Battle Academy for Teaching and Learning, two Hamilton County Magnet Schools. UTC professors assist with staff development for the Brown and Battle faculties, and they supervise UTC education students in practical on-site training.

30

West Campus Housing: UNDER CONSTRUCTION

This is the site of our new housing complex, West Campus Housing. West Campus will offer our students 3 different suite style floor plans. The 600 bed space complex will open for the Fall 2018 semester.

31

Boling Apartments

Built in 1975, this was the first apartment style housing in the southeast. Renovated in 2001, the apartments are named after Ed Boling, a former UT President. Boling features 4 single bedrooms per apartment as well as a shared living, kitchen, and bath area.

32

Johnson-Obear Apartments

Johnson Obear was built in 2 phases, 1993 & 1997. Johnson Obear features 4 single bedrooms per apartment as well as a shared living, kitchen, and bath area. Each apartment also has a balcony/porch.

33

Lockmiller Apartments

Lockmiller was built in two phases: phase I in 1982 & phase II in 1986.

34

Stagmaier Suites

Stagmaier Hall was built in the 1960s and was a co-ed traditional dorm used until fall 2005. Stagmaier was renovated and re-opened in the fall of 2012 as a traditional suite-style residence hall.

35

South Campus Housing: Guerry, Decosimo, Stophel, Walker, and UC Foundations

The tan colored buildings across McCallie Ave are our South Campus Housing. This includes 5 buildings: Guerry Apts. (1000) Decosimo Apts. (2000) Stophel Apts (3000) Walker Apts (4000) UC Foundations Apts (5000) & the Stacy Town Center.
